

I do not want our no-call list changed to assist the bankers. My family's quality of life has improved immensely since we do not have to answer the phone all day on useless sales pitches which I see as an invasion of my privacy. Bankers can use snail mail!